REPORT NO. 25X1X

1. When a student applies for admittance to the School of Medicine in Bucharest he is required to submit a certificate of financial status, on which must be listed the occupation of his parents and the total wealth of the family. The sons of the wealthier families are either not permitted to enroll, or are taxed heavily while they are in the school.

2. ARLUS, the Rumanian-Soviet Friendship Society, is organized in every section of the university. The main purpose of this organization is the dissemination of propaganda on the theme of the "superiority" of Soviet culture and science over the Western countries.
3. Professors in the university have a maximum salary of 20,000 lei each month, an amount which is not enough to buy a suit of clothes.
